

6516207291.txt

I am disappointed that the FCC would even consider taking up the issue of traffic and weather reporting provided by XM radio. I bought and subscribe to XM radio because I use the traffic information provided. I have purchased equipment and pay a monthly fee for this service because I do not like the way the FM and AM locally available radio flood me with advertising and do not have entertainment focused at the level XM has been able to provide.